Title says it all - I'm considering buying an Audient ID14 to use with an iPad on the road, but it occurred to me that perhaps the new 3D card will allow me to take my ULN-2 out with an iPad - anyone know? Of course I realise that it may yet be some months before the card is released so I may have to get the ID anyway but still it'd be good to know...

Yes, when it is released, the 3d card will let you use the ULN-2 with the iPad and iPhone.
